

Grievance and Termination Procedures for CESF Program

211 LA works to promote the well-being and fair treatment of all individuals contacting 211 for services. This document is designed to provide information to individuals on their grievance and program termination rights, procedures and steps to take and what to expect when filing a grievance or termination appeal.

211 LA will make available the Grievance and Termination Procedures on its website at: <https://211la.org/coordinated-entry-system-families-cesf> with additional copies available upon request.

Grievance Procedure

211 LA encourages all individuals with a complaint to first submit details of concern via the published online form: <https://forms.gle/d77QxAgMr5hc7TMLA>. 211 LA staff will respond within three (3) business days.

5. LAHSA or Dispute Resolution Services Appeal - Individuals that want to continue to pursue an appeal have a right to contact LAHSA or a free dispute resolution program, after the completion of 211 LA's grievance appeal process.

LAHSA Appeal

LAHSA in collaboration with the Department of Health Services, Department of Mental Health, and the Department of Public Health have established a county wide centralized phone line for participants seeking to engage in the funder grievance process. Participants can contact the appropriate funder to access the grievance appeal process. This process only evaluates and ensures that participants have received due process in the filing of a grievance with 211 LA, and that the above-mentioned procedures were followed. This process can take up to 25 days. Participants can access this process through the contact information provided below:
